

SSTF Meeting 3/28/12

- Terra Café—did awesome today, some estimates say 150 people
- Peter Keleman talk about population and energy tonight at 6:30-don't forget to go!
- BIA—need to get more people, create more of a community
 - Need more eyes on the buildings (students, other users)
 - Made LinkedIn group, all but two members have joined, going to start a discussion
- EcoLogic—went to Heinburg talk last night, next Tuesday at 7 we are having an advising session
- Poly Articles—column has been reapproved, articles should try to be RPI-related and/or local news, keep bias out of it or at least give a spectrum of viewpoints.
 - Biweekly?
 - Shoot for 1pm Sunday afternoon
 - Check out google doc (<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheet/ccc?key=0AuHkcoYquS3MdfBMTENZYUJpRWtOSnNBUMk4RjhIMIE#gid=0>) for updated guidelines
 - Writing about projects is OK
- Arboretum
 - April 22nd—learn how to identify trees and help identify some
- EarthFest
 - Learn-how-to-make-biodiesel thing? People are interested.
- Sustainability Studies Seminar Series—1st one is next Monday, April 2nd
 - 2-4 in the Union
 - Government
- ESW solar battery thing
 - SSTF is donating $116, unanimously approved
- Elections are coming up, start thinking about running in for a position
 - Chair—Taylor
 - Vice Chair—Arun, Alex (only here for fall semester), Kaori
 - Secretary—
 - Outreach—Elizabeth
 - Recycling Coordinator—
- Solar panels on Nason roof
 - Vasudha is ready to meet with someone
- EcoQuest—maybe do as a first few weeks of the semester thing for Vasudha students
- EWB—just received large grant for next project trip, yay!

Attendance

- Sam
- Liam
- Eric
- Terrance
- Alex
- Arun
- Elizabeth
- Barrett
- Taylor

- Rachel
- Colleen
- Shwetha
- Atsushi
- Magaly